

How the academic and technical options would work from 2022

*Where a student does both, the traineeship will follow the transition year. Students doing both the transition year and traineeship may progress directly to employment.

**Some students will move directly from A levels and/or applied general qualifications to degree and higher apprenticeships.